What do you watch for entertainment?

69 I don't know if I'm the only weirdo doing that but I like watching coding tutorials (both front and backend) and stuff like that for entertainment.

I also like watching Kalle Hallden, Florin Pop, DevEd, Kevin Powell, And I'm looking for something new, is there a channel you could recommend that provides entertaining content for devs?

Excellent work

69 If so, how did you do it and what Magsafe wallet do you use?

If not, what do you put in your Magsafe wallet and what do you put in your regular wallet?

The image shows a mobile application interface. At the top, there is a blurred header section. Below it, a post is displayed with a small thumbnail image at the top. The post has three categories: 'Entertainment', 'Question', and 'WebDev'. Below the categories are the author's profile icon, the username 'u/John Doe', the timestamp '12hr ago', and a share icon. To the right of the share icon is a comment count '420 Comments' with a reply icon. The main content of the post is titled 'The Revolution will not be Televised' and contains several lines of text. Below the post are upvote, downvote, and bookmark icons. A second post is partially visible below it. At the bottom left, there is a red 'inShare' logo. On the right side, a large white modal window is open, titled 'Create New Post'. The modal has tabs for 'Text' (which is selected) and 'Image'. It includes fields for 'Post title' and 'Text' (with a placeholder 'Text'). Below these is a 'Select Post Category:' dropdown with 'Categories' and a dropdown arrow, and two buttons: 'Cancel' and 'Post'.

The main content area consists of a feed of three posts:

- Webflow or Wordpress? And Why? (12hr ago) by John Doe. It has 420 comments. The post content is a question about the pros and cons of Webflow vs WordPress, followed by a screenshot of a presentation slide titled 'Send, Sign, Track, Done.'.
- Webflow or Wordpress? And Why? (12hr ago) by John Doe. It has 420 comments. This is another version of the same post.
- Webflow? Yes or No? (12hr ago) by John Doe. It has 420 comments. This is a third version of the same post.

To the right of the feed, there's a sidebar titled 'Recent Posts' containing three entries, each with a link and a timestamp: 'Someone please help me?' (23 September 2023), 'Someone please help me?' (23 September 2023), and 'Someone please help me?' (23 September 2023).

On the left side of the screen, there's a vertical sidebar with icons and labels for 'Home', 'Explore Topics', 'Tags', 'Users', 'Saved Posts', and 'My Profile'. At the top right, there are profile and notification icons for 'John Doe'.

In the middle section, there's a search bar with the placeholder 'Search...'. Below it is a 'Create New Post' button. The feed navigation includes tabs for 'Posts', 'Comments', and 'People'.

The second section of the image shows a detailed view of the first post from the feed. It includes the post title, author information, a large text area with a placeholder 'What are your thoughts?', a 'Post' button, a comment search bar, and a comment list with two visible comments from 'Jhon Doe'.

The third section shows a user profile for 'Jhon Doe'. It features a circular profile picture, the name 'Jhon Doe', the location 'Julie Steyn', and a reliability rating of '78%'. Below the profile is a short bio: 'Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit, sed do eiusmod tempor incididunt ut labore et dolore magna aliqua.' A 'Edit Profile' button is at the bottom of the profile card.

The fourth section shows a 'Past Questions and Answers' section with a post titled 'What do you watch for entertainment?'. It includes a like count of 69, a comment section, and a 'Post' button.

The fifth section shows an 'Account Settings' screen with a circular profile picture and a back and close button.
